WHY WE'RE THE EXPLORERS

La Salle University's nickname — The Explorers — was erroneously bestowed by a sports writer covering a La Salle football game (La Salle played intercollegiate football from 1931-41) on campus sometime during the '30s. He thought that the school was named after the famed French explorer of North America.

In reality, the school was named after St. John Baptist de La Salle, the French educator and founder of the Christian Brothers. Despite the error, the nickname has remained.

1997-98 Preview

1997-98 Preview

With four starters returning and six recruits ready to lend their helping hands, the outlook for the 1997-98 La Salle University men's basketball team is promising.

With history behind them in the matter of down-to-the-wire losses and breaks going the other way, the Explorers are looking for a definite upgrade as they enter their third season in the Atlantic 10 Conference.

From six victories two years ago to 10 last season doesn't seem like a great leap at first glance but when you consider the 1995-96 team played 30 games as opposed to the 27 in 1996-97, the improvement becomes a lot more defined.

Percentage-wise, the Explorers went from .200 to .370, a jump of .170 points, and, always remembering:

Of the Explorers' 17 losses, 10 were by single digits, five games by four or less, including last-second three-point heart-breakers to NCAA Tournament-bound teams in Temple and St. Joseph's.

The 16th loss came to St. Joseph's in the regular-season closer on March 1, after La Salle co-captain Mike Gizzi had converted three foul shots with four seconds left and forced a 59-59 tie.

But, true to La Salle's recent fortunes, the Hawks won it on a 25-foot bomb by Rashid Bey as the buzzer sounded.

However, there were highlights, many of them provided by Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year Donnie Carr (a five-time winner of the weekly Rookie of the Week honor), and junior co-captain Mike Gizzi.

Carr, from Philadelphia's Roman Catholic

High, was the conference's leading scorer (23.9) and Gizzi ranked ninth at 15.3.

Carr started sensationally, with a 36-point debut at Mount St. Mary's, and, for the first few weeks of the season, topped all scorers in Division I and finished in sixth place.

The freshman guard closed out the regular season with 41 points in a 94-73 rout of Fordham (the most points ever scored by a freshman in an Atlantic 10 game) and 30 in that heroic effort against St. Joseph's.

In between, he experienced such glowing moments as a 34-point night at Iowa (one of those five-point losses), another 36 (this time against George Washington), a 12-for-18 shooting night at St. Bonaventure, then producing a jump pass to Gizzi, whose three-pointer paved the way for the Explorers' 72-70 victory, ending a 13-game Atlantic 10 road losing streak.

Gizzi led the team in scoring in five games, including a career-high 24 against Temple in a double-overtime classic and was virtually tied with freshman Travar Johnson for the team's rebounding lead with 5.5 per game to Johnson's 5.8.

Shawn Smith, the junior guard from the highly-regarded Simon Gratz program, showed occasional improved offense, including a 26-point outburst in a CoreStates Spectrum 79-77 victory over Duquesne.

Johnson gave the Explorers a shot-blocking presence it had lacked in recent years. His total of 52 placed him third in the Atlantic 10.

Seniors Olof Landgren and Brian Flickinger also return to round out an experienced sextet.

And then there's the incoming class which is expected to add rebounding and inside defense, plus scoring to complement Gizzi and Carr: Garrett Bragg, Victor Thomas, James Jordan, K'Zell Wesson, Sid Catlett and Anwar Wilson.

Last season Donnie Carr became the first freshman to lead the Atlantic 10 in scoring, averaging 23.9 points per game in 1996-97.

A former walk-on, senior Mike Gizzi can become the 38th member of La Salle's 1,000-point club. He needs 111 points to reach the milestone.

1996-97: A Closer Look

La Salle took part in some of the Atlantic 10's most exciting games of the 1996-97 season.

Jan. 28 — at Temple's McGonigle Hall ... In a game that ended just past 11:30 pm, the Owls' Pepe Sanchez hit a 30-foot jump shot to end a double-overtime thriller in Temple's favor, 70-67. The game was televised on ESPN2 and did not get underway until 9:30, accounting for the near-midnight finish. For La Salle, it was a Mike Gizzi show. He scored a career-tying 24 points and added seven rebounds in 47 minutes of action. The Explorers stayed in the game despite being outrebounded, 59-38. Shawn Smith played the entire 50 minutes while Donnie Carr sat out one minute.

Feb. 1 — at the CoreStates Spectrum ... George Washington's Yegor Mescheriakov scored 31 points, including a miraculous back-of-the-head tap-in that did in the Explorers. His unorthodox field goal forced the game into overtime and the Colonials, overcoming Donnie Carr's 36 points, won, 78-77.

Feb. 15 — at St. Bonaventure ... La Salle's first conference road victory in its nearly two seasons in the Atlantic 10 was a thriller. Donnie Carr scored 29 points and had three assists. One of those assists was a dish to Gizzi for a three-point jumper with 23 seconds left to break a 68-68 tie. Mike Melchionni's free throw at :01 made the final score, 72-68.

Mar. 1 — at the CoreStates Spectrum ... This, as the saying goes, was a typical Philadelphia Big 5 game, with the added interest of an Atlantic 10 conflict. The Hawks pulled it out, 62-59, in the regular season finale. Mike Gizzi showed clutch foul shooting toward the end.

With four seconds left, he was fouled on a three-point field goal attempt. After he made the first two free throws, St. Joseph's called time out. When play resumed, Gizzi connected again to complete his hat trick, tying it at 59-59. St. Joseph's brought the ball upcourt, and Rashid Bey got off a three-pointer at the top of the key. In keeping with the way things went all season for La Salle, the shot went in and La Salle went down, 62-59.

COMING HOME???

After seven seasons at the Philadelphia Civic Center (formerly Convention Hall), La Salle played its 1996-97 home schedule at the CoreStates Spectrum, where its record was 7-5. The Explorers will remain there for most of 1997-98 with the expectations that the restructuring of campus-site Hayman Center will be completed in time for La Salle to finish its home season there Feb. 21 against Virginia Tech. When the Explorers return to Hayman, they'll start with a record of 17-1. The last game in Hayman was Feb. 10, 1987, a 93-60 triumph over Holy Cross. The only loss? To Drexel, 69-66, on Mar. 2, 1981, in an East Coast Conference Tournament game.

MORE BENCH

The addition of the 1997-98 recruiting class will help coach "Speedy" Morris alleviate some of his bench problems. Last season, starters accounted for 87 percent of the scoring, and twice the bench failed to contribute a point. Four of La Salle's starters averaged more than 30 minutes per game. Eight of the 12 players on this season's roster are 6-7 or taller, giving La Salle a chance to improve on its rebounding margin (-8.9), lowest in the Atlantic 10.

OTHER STUFF

La Salle was one of only two Atlantic 10 teams with two players in the conference's top 10 scorers last season. Donnie Carr led the A-10 in scoring with 23.9 points a game

THE SCORING LEGACY OF NUMBER 22

The La Salle jersey #22 was retired after the 1989-90 season to recognize the achievements of Lionel Simmons, who is currently playing with the NBA's Sacramento Kings. Simmons, the Explorers' all-time leading scorer, finished his career with 3,217 points, which was also good for third place the NCAA all-time scoring list.

However, #22 could have been retired 25 years ago when Hubie Marshall scored 1,576 points wearing that famed number. In fact, #22 has been worn by some of the most prolific scorers in La Salle history, as the chart below indicates.

LA SALLE ALL-TIME SCORING LIST

No.	Player	Years	Pts.	Rank
22	Hubie Marshall	1964-67	1,576	8th
22	Kurt Kanaskie	1976-80	1,356	14th
22	Steve Black	1981-85	2,012	4th
22	Lionel Simmons	1986-90	3,217	1st

TOTAL POINTS: 8,161

In scoring over 8,000 points in 15 seasons of competition, these men averaged 20 points per game wearing #22. In this case, it wasn't the shoes, it was the shirt. And a great deal of talent.

and Mike Gizzi was ninth at 15.3.

Temple was the other team (Marc Jackson, 6th and Rasheed Brokenborough, 7th) ... Besides leading the conference in scoring, Carr also shared the top spot in three-point field goals made per game (3.67) with Duquesne's Tom Pipkin ... When the Explorers lost to St. Joseph's, 62-59, in the final regular-season game, it marked their 14th consecutive loss to a Philadelphia Big 5 team. La Salle's last victory was Jan. 19, 1993, 66-53, over St. Joseph's.

Coaching Staff

William "Speedy" Morris

It all started in Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) ball 37 years ago and it has continued ever since, and wherever William "Speedy" Morris has coached, he has been a winner.

His career coaching record in high school and college stands at 624-249 (.715), including men's college basketball (193-136 at La Salle), women's college basketball (43-17 as La Salle's coach) and boy's high school (347-82 at Philadelphia Roman Catholic and 41-14 at Penn Charter).

Speedy's winning percentage in his 11 years as La Salle's men's coach (.586) rates him among the top 75 on the winningest active Division I coaches list (by percentage and with a minimum of five years at a Division I school).

The 1990 NCAA Tournament victory over Southern Mississippi in Hartford on March 15 was Speedy's 100th as La Salle's men's coach. Only three other Division I coaches have won that many games in their first four seasons — current Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim, North Carolina State's legendary coach of the late '40s and early '50s, Everett Case, and, most recently, Roy Williams of Kansas.

Coaching success has been the story wherever Morris has ventured. When his 1993-94 team suffered through an 11-16 record, it was the first time in his 26 years that one of his teams finished below the .500 mark.

The 1992-93 season produced a 14-13 record, and when the Explorers missed out on a bid to the National Invitation Tournament, it marked the end of a six-year streak in which La Salle had appeared in a post-season tournament.

The 1991-92 season saw Morris lead the Explorers to that sixth straight post-season appearance and their fourth Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth in five years. La Salle's exciting last-second victory over Manhattan in the MAAC final and its heart-breaking two-point loss to Seton Hall in the NCAA Tournament were two of college basketball's most-watched games during March Madness.

In 1989-90, Morris guided the Explorers to a 30-2 record, the most victories in Division I, and the most by any La Salle team and a school record 22 straight wins. The Explorers captured their third straight MAAC regular-season championship (16-0) and the MAAC Tournament crown for the third consecutive NCAA berth. And when La Salle beat Southern Mississippi in Hartford, it was the Explorers' first NCAA victory since 1983.

His 1987-88 team compiled a 24-10 record, went 14-0 in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and swept through the MAAC Tournament to earn the conference's NCAA Tournament berth. In 1989, Morris moved things up a notch with a 26-6 record, another MAAC regular-season championship (13-1) and the MAAC Tournament crown again.

Morris took his first Explorer team — 1986-87 — to a 20-13 record and into the National Invitation Tournament, where it defeated Villanova, Niagara, Illinois State and Arkansas-Little Rock before bowing to Southern Mississippi in the championship game.

For the next three years, Morris' Explorers won their way into the NCAA Tournament, then earned a berth in the 1990-91 NIT, losing at Massachusetts, 93-90, on a last-second three-point shot.

Morris won or shared MAAC Coach of the Year honors twice, gaining the honor solo in 1988 and sharing it with St. Peter's Ted Fiore in 1989. He was also named the 1989 and 1990 District 3 Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and was voted the Eastern Coach of the Year in 1990. He was named the Philadelphia Big Five Coach of the Year three times — in 1989, 1990 and 1992 — by the Philadelphia B'nai B'rith.

La Salle's victory over host Baylor in the Dr Pepper Classic championship game on Dec. 10, 1994 was Speedy's 600th career win, embracing high school, La Salle women's and La Salle men's careers.

Morris first gained recognition as a basketball coach at Roman Catholic High School in Philadelphia. In 14 seasons at Roman, Morris registered 347 victories and only 82 losses.

Roman won one Philadelphia City Championship, six Philadelphia Catholic League titles, two National Catholic Tournament championships and had four 30-win seasons.

Morris then spent two years as head coach at Philadelphia's William Penn Charter School where he posted a 41-14 record. His 1984 team won the Philadelphia Interacademic League championship, the school's first title in 12 seasons.

Morris came to La Salle University for the 1984-85 season when he replaced Kevin Gallagher as head coach of the Explorers' women's program, becoming the first full-time appointment to that position. Morris' Explorers women's teams won 22 games in 1984-85 and 21 games in 1985-86. The 1985 team won the MAAC title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Following that season, Morris was named men's basketball coach, becoming the first Division I coach to make such a switch.

In September, 1995, Speedy was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of Philadelphia, Morris and his wife, Mimi, live in Roxborough with their four children — Keith, a former guard on the La Salle team, Brian, a former team manager, and Margaret Mary, all La Salle graduates, and Christopher, a senior at Archbishop Carroll High in suburban Philadelphia.

HOW MORRIS BECAME SPEEDY

There may be different theories as to how "Speedy" Morris acquired his nickname, but here is the answer, directly from the source.

"I was in seventh grade and on the grammar school team at St. John's in Manayunk. We had a little gym that also served as a cafeteria. Before we could practice, we'd have to move the tables away.

"It didn't take me long to figure out that if I came a little late for practice, I wouldn't have to help move the tables. Pretty soon, Gerry Boyle, our coach, caught on and made me do 100 laps around the gym, which isn't as bad as it sounds, since that gym would make Roman Catholic's gym (where he used to coach) look like the Palestra.

"Anyhow, along about the 25th lap, I started to go slowly, which wasn't too far from the speed I had been going. Anyhow, Gerry started yelling, 'C'mon, Speedy, let's get going' and that name has stuck ever since."

Which, when you think about it, is ironic, because the coach that Speedy, who wasn't so speedy, succeeded at La Salle, Lefty Ervin, wasn't lefthanded, either.

Joe Mihalich

Wherever he has been, Joe Mihalich has been synonymous with winning basketball. A La Salle University assistant coach since July, 1981, Mihalich, 41, has been given freedom to coach and teach. And he has shown he can do both.

In his 17 years as a La Salle coach, the Explorers have been to five NCAA Tournaments and three National Invitation Tournaments. In that span, La Salle has averaged 20 victories per season. On January 4, 1992, Mihalich, in the absence of head coach Speedy Morris, was head coach for a game against Iona and directed La Salle to a 120-88 victory.

Mihalich's La Salle duties have included floor practice, game coaching, recruitment of high school players, academic monitoring of players, opponents' scouting and film study. In his time as an Explorers' assistant, Mihalich has been heavily involved in the recruitment of seven of the nine all-time leading school scorers, including 1990 National Player of the Year Lionel Simmons. Four of those players — Simmons, Doug Overton, Randy Woods and Tim Legler — are playing in the NBA.

Mihalich's contributions to the La Salle program are especially appreciated by coach Morris.

"There is nothing that Joe Mihalich is asked to do that he does not do with much pride and dedication," Morris said. "I have never met a more dedicated or loyal human being. He is the best."

A 1978 La Salle graduate with a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics and Education, Mihalich earned his Masters in Athletic Administration from Temple University.

A co-captain of the 1978 La Salle basketball team under coach Paul Westhead, Mihalich was a four-time letter winner. He began his coaching career the next season under the legendary high school coach, Morgan Wootten at DeMatha High School in Hyattsville, Md. Mihalich was the assistant varsity coach for three years and head junior varsity coach for two years.

While the DeMatha varsity was going 82-8, Mihalich's JV team was a tidy 34-5. Wootten had to miss the 1981 Washington, D.C., title game and Mihalich coached the Stags to a victory over previously-unbeaten Dunbar High.

Mihalich has been an adjunct professor in La Salle's Department of Mathematics and is a lecturer in the university's prestigious Freshman Year Experience Program.

Joe and his wife, Mary, live in Philadelphia. They have three sons — Joe, 10, and twins Matt and Tony, 9.

Joe Mihalich has been directing Explorer players for the past 17 seasons as an assistant coach at La Salle.

Coaching Staff

Tyrone Pitts

Tyrone Pitts, a former University of Pennsylvania standout and recently an assistant coach at Cornell University for four years, is in his first season as an assistant on "Speedy" Morris' men's basketball staff.

Pitts, 31, was a four-year member of the Penn Quakers, scoring 1,301 points and ranking 10th on the school's all-time list. In his senior season, he led the team in scoring (17.4 per game) and rebounding (7.0) and was voted to the second-team All-Ivy League team.

Pitts starred at Overbrook Regional (NJ) High under Bill Lange before matriculating to Penn's Wharton School of Finance from where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in economics in 1988. He has coached in Australia as well as at several NBA camps, including the Philadelphia 76ers' and Don Casey camps.

While acting as a player-coach in Australia with the Rainbow Coast Raiders in 1988-89, he averaged 41.7 points per game and was the two-time Australia slam dunk champion. His ensuing travels included playing in Hong Kong, Cyprus, Israel and Manila.

He competed in the Hong Kong Super Cup Tournament in 1993. In 1992-93, he played in Nicosia, Cyprus, and led the country in scoring with 35.2 points per game and added 12.6 rebounds.

Tyrone and his wife, Lori, have three children, daughters Lauren (7) and Tylor (1) and son John (3).

Tyrone Pitts is in his first season as an assistant coach at La Salle.

Rich Prendergast

An enthusiastic supporter of La Salle basketball, Prendergast is in his 14th season as a volunteer coach to Speedy Morris' teams. Prendergast has coached in the Philadelphia CYO and in the Catholic League high school system, where he won 670 games, compiling a percentage of .817.

In 1986, Prendergast was honored with the Mary S. O'Connor Loyalty Award for dedication and service to the La Salle women's intercollegiate athletic programs.

Prendergast, a 1960 La Salle graduate, lives in Stone Harbor, New Jersey. Rich's family consists of wife Jane, and four daughters, Lori, who lives in Nashville, Tennessee; Maria and Catharine, who are La Salle graduates, and the youngest, Colleen, a freshman at La Salle.

Rich Prendergast has patrolled the sidelines with Speedy Morris for 14 seasons.

1996-97: Played in 19 games, including a 15-minute stint against Xavier ... has made 65 three-pointers in his career ... notched a career-high 17 points against Duquesne in his sophomore season.

1995-96: Sparked by a 17-point outburst against and Mike Gizzi (54) and his 32.7% placed him second to Gizzi's 40%.

1994-95: After seeing limited service in the early part of the season, Flickinger averaged almost 20 minutes a game in the last eight contests. Given more playing time, his scoring picked up, reaching a peak of 11 points in 27 minutes in a 92-90 victory over Wright State at the Palestra on February 11, 1995 ... He earned late-season starts against Cleveland State and Detroit and was voted the Explorers' Most Improved Player.

PERSONAL: Born 10/12/75 ... Statistics of 15.5 points, eight rebounds and two assists per game at Zionsville High (under coach Dave Sollman) pointed out Flickinger's versatility ... His shooting ability produced a field-goal percentage of 62.4% (136 for 218). At the foul line, he shot 68.5% (50-for-73) ... Brian played AAU ball for four seasons under George Irvine, then an Indiana Pacers' vice-president ... Flickinger graduated from high school with a 3.7 (out of 4.0) GPA.

Philadelphia, Pa.
Chestnut Hill Academy

"Each of our programs is dedicated to achieving the proper balance of excellence in both the classroom and on the playing field. The Atlantic 10 is proud of the accomplishments of our student-athletes but will continue to strive for even greater success."

The success the Atlantic 10 enjoyed last year was highlighted by the league placing five teams in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament for the first time ever, with St. Joseph's advancing to the Sweet 16.

In addition, George Washington carried the Atlantic 10 banner to the Final Eight of the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament; Massachusetts' softball team advanced to the Women's College World Series for the second time in five years; Rhode Island shot putter Michelle Fournier placed 10th at the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championship; and the Massachusetts women's varsity eight placing second at the inaugural NCAA Women's Rowing Championship.

Success in each of its championship sports has been the hallmark of the Atlantic 10 Conference and that was reinforced this past year when 27 teams and 17 individuals earned berths to postseason competition. All told, 229 teams have represented the Atlantic 10 Conference in postseason play since the 1976-77 season.

Atlantic 10 student-athletes excel in the classroom as well. The Atlantic 10 sponsors several academic awards programs, including USAirways — Atlantic 10 Academic All-Conference teams in each of its championship sports (177 student-athletes were honored in 1996-97) and the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which honored an Atlantic 10 record 1,224 student-athletes with a 3.0 grade point average or better this past year. The league also cites a male and female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and awards a postgraduate scholarship to both a male and female student-athlete who express a desire to continue their education.

On June 14, 1994, Linda Bruno was officially introduced as the Atlantic 10's fourth commissioner. In her short tenure as commissioner, Bruno has strengthened the Atlantic 10's membership with the additions of Dayton, Fordham, La Salle, and Virginia Tech, thus assuring the Conference's future. Bruno also negotiated a six-year television deal with ESPN/Creative Sports — the most lucrative and broad-based package in league history — which translates into the greatest amount of exposure ever for the Atlantic 10's athletic programs. She relocated the league office to Philadelphia, placing it in the center of the Atlantic 10's geographic footprint.

Under her leadership, the Atlantic 10 has increased its championship schedule to 21 sports with the additions of women's rowing and men's, women's outdoor track & field and the Atlantic 10 Football Conference, comprised of the former members of the Yankee Conference. In addition, Bruno instituted the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.0 GPA or better.

The Atlantic 10 Conference will crown champions in 21 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's gymnastics, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

68 Years of Excellence

Did you know that, in its 68 official seasons of intercollegiate basketball:

- 19 La Salle players have made it to the National Basketball Association, including first-round draft picks in Tom Gola, Lionel Simmons, Randy Woods, Ken Durrett, Larry Cannon, Michael Brooks and Joe Bryant?

- Three of those were named the NCAA Division I National Player of the Year — Gola in 1954, Brooks in 1980 and Simmons in 1990? Lionel Simmons is the third leading all-time Division I scorer with 3,217 points, and is one of four Explorers to surpass 2,000 points and one of 34 to go over 1,000?

- Eleven of those players have reached 1,000 in the last 10 years?

- When the 1996-97 season opened, four Explorers were in the NBA — Simmons, Overton, Woods and Tim Legler — all of whom received their degrees from La Salle within four years?

- There are at least 15 others playing professionally in the United States, Europe and Japan?

- Including an NCAA championship in 1954 and a National Invitation Tournament title in 1952, La Salle has made 22 post-season appearances, 11 in the NCAA and 11 in the NIT?

- In 1987, the Explorers advanced to the championship game of the NIT in New York's Madison Square Garden?

- La Salle is one of only 15 teams which have won both postseason tournaments?

- In coach "Speedy" Morris' 11 years, La Salle has won eight in-season tournaments, while playing in such locales as Hawaii (twice), Japan, New Orleans, Texas, California, Arizona and San Juan, Puerto Rico?

- When La Salle won its 1,000th game in 1992, it became the team with the fewest number of seasons (62) to reach that total?

- In coach Morris' 11 years, La Salle has been in six postseason tournaments (four NCAA, two NIT) and, in 1989-90, posted the school's all-time best record, 29-1 in regular season play and 1-1 in the NCAA Tournament? Its 30-2 overall record was the best in the NCAA Division I? Its 22-game winning streak is the school's best ever?

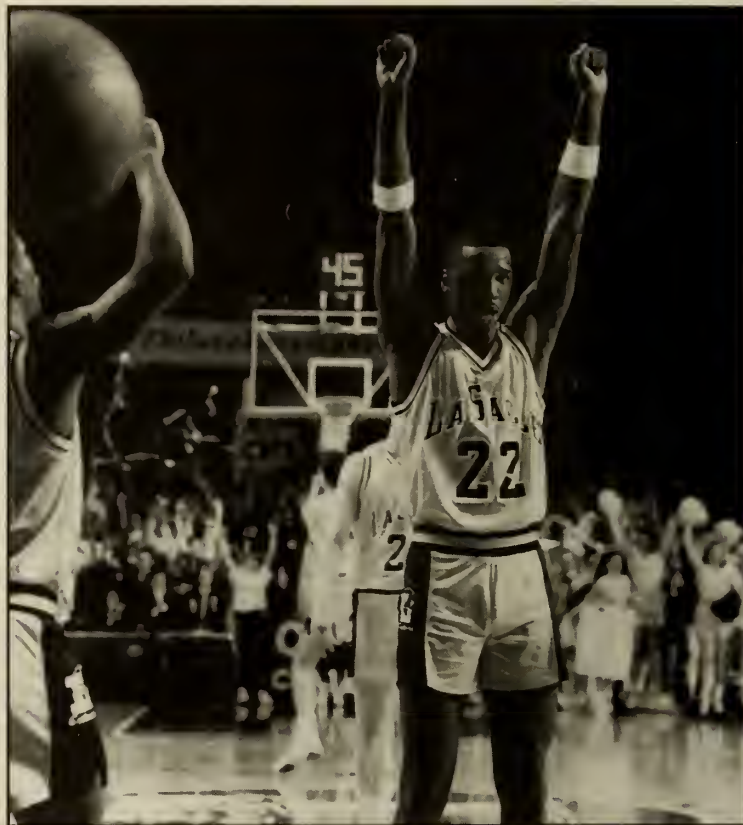

- In 1997-98, while playing in the Atlantic 10 Conference, the Explorers are scheduled to appear on national and local TV a total of 10 times?

- And if you check out all the major conferences, La Salle has played teams from all of them and has at least one victory over a team in every major conference?

- During the past 11 seasons under "Speedy" Morris, the La Salle Explorers men's teams have:

- 1) graduated 32 of the 32 seniors in the basketball program;

- 2) had two first-team Academic All-Americans (Tim Legler, '88; Jack Hurd, '92);

Lionel Simmons is one of three Explorers to rank among the top 25 all-time scorers in NCAA history. Simmons is third with 3,217 points.

- 3) been to six postseason tournaments; four NCAA, two NIT, including the National Invitation Tournament championship game in 1987;

- 4) had four players in the NBA (all of whom graduated in four years) — Tim Legler '88, Lionel Simmons '90, Doug Overton '91, and Randy Woods '92;

- 5) have won 19 championships, eight regular season tourney titles; four first-place league titles, four league postseason championships and three Philadelphia Big 5 titles;

- 6) have compiled a postseason record of 18 victories and 12 losses;

- 7) in his 13 seasons at La Salle (including two as women's coach) he has won 236 games, an average of 20 wins a season.

All-Time Great Explorers

TOM GOLA
1954 Player of the Year

Tom Gola, plain and simple, put La Salle basketball on the map. Widely regarded as the premier college player of his time, Gola led the Explorers to the 1952 NIT and 1954 NCAA Championships. A scorer both inside and outside, he averaged 20.9 points and 19.0 rebounds in his four-year career. A three-time collegiate All-American, Gola played in the NBA with the Philadelphia and San Francisco Warriors and New York Knicks and was named All-Pro five times. Gola added to his La Salle glory as head coach of the 1968-69 Explorers who finished 23-1 and was the second ranked team in the nation.

A spectacular combination of strength and grace highlighted Brooks' play as did his intelligence on the court. EXPLORERS WRAP UP GAME WITH 30-POINT
3RD PERIOD; 2 SCORING MARKS BROKEN

By Bob Vetrone

Of The Bulletin Sports Staff

Kansas City, Mo., March 20 — La Salle College, playing by far its greatest game of a long and successful season, roared to a 92-76 victory over Bradley tonight to bring Philadelphia its first NCAA basketball championship.

The Explorers, receiving sparkling performance from about a half dozen of its players, used a devastating 30-point third quarter to reach the highest pinnacle any local team has approached. Tom Gola, Charley Singley, Frank Blatcher, Fran O'Malley, Frank O'Hara — all took important parts in the triumph, which was turned into a runaway by that prolific third quarter.

In rolling to its 92-point total, La Salle broke the record for points in a championship game. The combined pointage of 168 also set a new record for the tourney final.

The 1952 NIT Champions

GOLA, GREKIN MVPs AS LA SALLE TOPS DAYTON TO WIN NIT CHAMPIONSHIP

In the early days of post-season basketball tournaments - in the late 1930s through the middle '50s - the National Invitation Tournament was at least on a par with, and perhaps superior to, the still-emerging NCAA Tournament. So, when the La Salle Explorers romped through Seton Hall, St. John's, Duquesne and Dayton to capture the 1952 championship, it was a feat of national basketball importance.

La Salle, coached by future Hall of Famer Ken Loeffler, had entered the NIT as an unseeded team and had to get by Seton Hall's powerful Pirates, led by seven-footer Walter Dukes and an exceptional guard in Richie Regan. But La Salle freshman Tom Gola and junior Fred Iehle hit for 30 and 25 points respectively, with Iehle pouring in 20 in the first half.

Gola had 19 rebounds and six assists and junior Norm Grekin grabbed 15 boards. In a game that was described as one of the best in the NIT's 14-year history, the margin was never more than four points, as a capacity crowd of 18,422 wildly cheered on both teams in New York's old Madison Square Garden.

In the quarter-finals, Grekin, playing his way toward a share of tournament MVP honors with Gola, tallied 17 points and had 16 rebounds in a 51-45 victory over local favorite St. John's. And Grekin again played a big role in the 59-46 romp over the Sihugo Green-led Duquesne Dukes, rated by many as the top team in the tournament. Grekin had 21 points and 10 rebounds, Gola contributed 14 rebounds and 10 points and sophomore Jackie Moore added 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Then came the championship game against a tall and talented Dayton Flyers team, and it was no contest. Led by Gola, Iehle and playmaking captain Buddy Donnelly, the Explorers built a 38-30 halftime lead, then wrapped up the title with a 37-34 second-half advantage. Grekin, Gola and Moore were named to the All-Tournament team, and the Olympic Trials were just ahead.

At that time, the Olympic squad was picked from team trials rather than individuals as is done today. In those Trials, La Salle again defeated St. John's, 71-62, but bowed to Clyde Lovellette and the Kansas Jayhawks, 70-65, and fell before the Phillips Oilers, an AAU powerhouse.

Between the NIT and the Olympic Trials, the team, the school and the City of Philadelphia received notice from all around the country. And coach Loeffler had this praise for the team in an article that appeared in the La Salle Collegian:

"This was a new team, a young team, like a child in fact. It first had to walk. As any child would, it fell a few times. It gradually learned to walk, then to run. Against Seton Hall, it found it could jump as well as run."

And Ken could have added: "All the way to a national championship."

The University

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution which combines the best of all educational worlds. With more than 5,700 men and women attending classes, the University offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social and historic centers.

Founded by the Christian Brothers in 1863, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de La Salle, the patron saint of teaching. This institution, which began as a one building academy in center city Philadelphia, is now on a 100-acre campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers some 400, and the University offers nearly 50 programs of study. With a student-faculty ration of 14-to-1 and an average class size of 20, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' approach to education.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving eight to 10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor/dual major or to diversity one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A thriving nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, while receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a semester or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are: the Connelly Library; the Roland

Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Science, Geology and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building, and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Center, a building which is undergoing a $6.3 million renovation. The facility, which will feature a 3,800 seat basketball arena, includes a 1,700-seat Olympic-size swimming pool and diving area, three regulation-sized basketball courts, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 33 states and 18 countries. The University houses approximately 1,800 resident students in 13 residence halls and three apartment complexes. More than 75 percent of the student body plan graduate or professional work in their fields, with more than 1,200 degrees conferred annually.

La Salle undergraduates have been awarded 50 Fulbright grants since 1970, one of the highest number presented to an institution in the Mid-Atlantic region. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top four percent nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.'s (33rd out of 877 colleges and universities).

Recently, La Salle has enjoyed increasing national attention, including:

- U.S. News & World Report named La Salle the 11th Best Value in the northeastern United States in 1997 and was a leading regional university in the 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996 editions of "America's Best Colleges."

- The New York Times, Money magazine and Barron's all selected La Salle to appear in their guides to the "best buys in college education."

- The influential Long Island newspaper, Newsday, referred to La Salle as a "university on the rise" in an article titled "Where the Hot Schools Are."

- Standard & Poor's ranked La Salle 10th among the nation's liberal arts college in the number of graduates who are top corporate leaders.

- La Salle was selected to appear in Peterson's Competitive Colleges, a profile of the schools that consistently accept the nation's best students.

- La Salle had the nation's fifth highest graduation rate (94 percent) among approximately 300 Division I schools for student on athletic scholarships who entered in 1987-88.

- Each year, over 90 percent of all students recommended by the Health Profession Committee have been offered entry into medical schools.

- Each year, recruiters representing nearly 200 companies and organizations visit La Salle's campus to conduct job interviews with graduating seniors.

Dr. Thomas Brennan

Athletics Director

A new era in La Salle athletics began when Dr. Thomas Brennan became the school's fifth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation on September 18, 1997. Brennan has been involved with collegiate athletics since his undergraduate days at LeMoyne College in Syracuse, New York, where he ran cross country and was student coordinator for the college's intramural sports program.

"La Salle has proven successful in the Atlantic 10, and I am excited to lead the department," Brennan said at his introductory press conference. "You must have integrity in your program, you must have a program which emphasizes the educational mission of athletics, and I know that is important at La Salle."

Prior to his arrival at La Salle, Brennan was the Athletic Director at San Jose State University, moving the school from the Big West Conference to the Western Athletic Conference. During his seven-year administration, graduation rates for student-athletes more than doubled, participation by women in intercollegiate athletics nearly doubled, and the university was recognized for Title IX compliance efforts and considered a model for NCAA schools which sponsor Division I-A football by the Office of Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education.

In addition, annual corporate sponsorship income for San Jose State sports increased by 500 percent and annual athletic contributions more than doubled. Fundraising and sponsorship programs were introduced for women's athletics, and Brennan successfully solicited the largest gift to the annual scholarship fund in university history. Also, $6 million was raised for a new field house and administrative complex.

Brennan was the Director of Athletics at Loyola College in Baltimore from 1986-90. During that time, Brennan successfully moved Loyola from the Northeast Conference into the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, a league in which La Salle was a member. The Greyhounds became national contenders in men's and women's lacrosse and men's soccer, and qualified for the NCAA Division I Championships in men's and women's basketball during his four years.

The institution of a commercial radio and television network for Loyola basketball came under Brennan, as did the establishment of the Loyola Athletic Hall of Fame. Two new fundraising efforts were started by Brennan, and the installation of a multi-million dollar all-purpose athletic field came under his direction. While at Loyola, he was a member of the Board of Directors for the Maryland Special Olympics.

From 1980-86, Brennan worked at the University of New Mexico, first as Assistant Athletics Director and then Associate Athletics Director for Advancement at University of New Mexico. Upon leaving, he oversaw the fundraising, media relations, sponsorship, marketing, sales and athletic alumni efforts. Joining the staff after a highly publicized athletic scandal, Brennan helped the school to a top-five ranking in men's basketball attendance. Part of his duties included establishing a statewide radio and television network which had more than 10 outlets. Prior to that, he oversaw the NCAA compliance program for the school and handled the academic support area of the department. While at New Mexico, the school hosted the NCAA Division I Final Four Men's Basketball Tournament.

His athletic administration career began at Syracuse University, where he was Academic Coordinator for the athletic department, serving as a liaison with the school's central administration, deans, department heads and coaches. Syracuse was recognized by the NCAA as having one of the top ten student-athlete graduation rates in the country.

A 1973 graduate of LeMoyne College, Brennan went on to earn Master's and Doctoral degrees in Higher Education Administration from Syracuse University.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Brennan and his wife Ellen are the parents of Maggie (9), Tim (7), and Kate (3).

Tom Brennan was named athletics director on September 18, 1997.
